3. Any athlete wishing to compete in a World Triathlon event must submit their EOI via Smartabase 45 days before race start. Each EOI submitted will receive an automatic confirmation receipt. If an athlete does not receive a response, he/she should contact the Triathlon Canada office directly (lauren.nutt@triathloncanada.com). If the race is undersubscribed and Triathlon Canada has not used all their quota spots, athletes may submit an EOI for an event after the 45-day deadline, however, priority for race entry will come on a first serve basis, with those who submitted their EOI prior to the 45-day being given priority entry into the race, regardless of selection priority met.
4. World Triathlon publishes the start list for both the men's and women's races on www.triathlon.org 32 days before the event in question. The athletes are put on the start list by the World Triathlon as per 2024 World Triathlon rules.
5. World Triathlon allows each country to make substitutions following the publication of the Start List as per Section E.

H. CONDITIONS AND PROCEDURES OF WITHDRAWALS

An athlete who receives a position on the start list for a World Triathlon Event, or has a high probability of doing so, must notify Triathlon Canada via Smartabase no later than 14 days before the race start should they decide to withdraw from the race, unless an injury and/or unforeseen circumstance arises preventing him/her from honoring his/her commitment to race. In the event an athlete withdraws due to injury or illness, a medical certificate must be provided with the withdrawal request in Smartabase. In the event an athlete withdraws due to an unforeseen circumstance, a communication of the justification must be sent directly to the HPD for consideration. As per World Triathlon rules, late withdrawals may remove an athlete from all start and waitlists for 30 days following the withdrawal and may also reduce Triathlon Canada's quota spots for future events. Furthermore, late withdrawals block over quota athletes from the opportunity to race. The following penalties will be applied to all late withdrawals within the stated time frame when sufficient justification can not be provided:
