

CALL FOR DIRECTOR NOMINATIONS

Director Elections for the Annual General Meeting on September 19, 2026

1. INTRODUCTION

Triathlon Canada (TC), the national governing body for the sport, is currently seeking nominations for two (2) of eight (8) Director positions to serve a four-year term until the 2030 Triathlon Canada Annual General Meeting (AGM).

Candidates will be determined by 1) a protocol that considers geographic and gender by-law restrictions and 2) the highest number of votes.

2. DIRECTOR NOMINATIONS

As required in the By-laws, a Nominations Committee has been appointed by the Board to solicit and consider nominations for Directors. The members of the Committee are as follows:

- Joy Weismiller, (Chair) Triathlon Canada Board Member
- Trevor Penner, Triathlon Canada Board Member
- Paul Huyer, Former Triathlon Canada Director (external)
- Tara Postnikoff - Triathlon Ontario Board Member (external)
- Rachel Macatee, Interim CEO (non-voting member)
- Peter McCrory, Triathlon Canada Board President (non-voting member)

The nominations process will open on April 13, 2026. The Nominations Committee is requesting that nominations for Directors be submitted by May 18, 2026. All nominations received by the deadline will be assessed against the Board of Directors Terms of Reference (Appendix I), Board of Directors Diversity Policy (Appendix II) and the specific criteria set out below. The Board will present recommended candidates to Members at least fourteen (14) days before the Annual General Meeting.

3. CRITERIA FOR 2026 NOMINATIONS

The Nominations Committee has assessed the skills, experience and diversity needs of the Board and recognizes several important needs:

A. Essential Criteria: The following skills and experience are critical

- Knowledge of Sport/Para Sport
- Experience with a Governance Board
- Business and Financial Acumen
- Policy Development
- Stakeholder Engagement
- Team Player

B. Specific Criteria: Sought at this time

- Governance & Board Leadership
- Accounting & Finance
- Philanthropy & Donor Relations
- Sponsorship & Marketing

C. General Criteria

- Leadership
- Political Capital

4. ELIGIBILITY

- A. To be eligible for election as a Director an individual, as per the Triathlon Canada By-Laws, must:
- i. Be 18 years of age or older;
 - ii. Be a resident of Canada for the purposes of the Income Tax Act;
 - iii. Have the power under law to contract;
 - iv. Have not been declared incapable by a court in Canada or in another country;
 - v. Not have the status of bankrupt; and
 - vi. Not have active sanctions or provisional measures in place under the Canadian Safe Sport Program (CSSP) or a Provincial Safe Sport Program.
- B. The following persons are disqualified from being a Director:
- i. A person who has not met the requirements of this eligibility screening policy;
 - ii. A person who is a paid employee, consultant, contractor, or independent contractor of the Corporation, any of its Members, or any organization providing services to or on behalf of the Corporation;
 - iii. A person who holds a position as a director or officer of a Member;
 - iv. A person who acts as a race director, technical official or coach, paid or volunteer, on behalf of the Corporation, any of its Members, or any organization providing services to the Corporation;
 - v. A person who is a parent (defined as a birth father or mother, stepfather or mother, legal parent, or guardian) of an International Competition Cardholder athlete; and
 - vi. A person in a conflict of interest as determined by the Corporation's Core Policies relating to Code of Conduct and Ethics and Conflict of Interest.
- C. Any individual who is deemed ineligible from being a Director for the following reasons will remain ineligible for eighteen (18) months after the reason for disqualification has ceased:
- i. A person who is a paid employee, consultant, contractor, or independent contractor of the Corporation, any of its Members, or any organization providing services to or on behalf of the Corporation;
 - ii. A person who acts as a technical official or coach, paid or volunteer, on behalf of the Corporation, any of its Members, or any organization providing services to the Corporation; or
 - iii. A person ceases to be an Elite National Team Member and International Competition Card holder, in the case of the Athlete Director.
- D. Section 4.1, Article IV of Triathlon Canada's By-laws states that no more than five (5) Directors may be of the same gender identity. On account of the current composition of the Triathlon Canada Board of Directors, all gender identities are eligible for election at this time.
- No more than two Directors can reside in the same province at the time of election, excluding, for greater certainty, the Athlete Director. One continuing director resides in Manitoba, two from Alberta, and two from Ontario. Therefore, a maximum of one director from Manitoba may be elected and none from either Alberta or Ontario. A maximum of two directors from every other province may be elected.
- E. Directors must also adhere to Triathlon Canada's screening procedures, which may include obtaining a criminal record check. Following election, Directors have sixty (60) days to comply with the screening procedures.

5. 2026 NOMINATION SUBMISSIONS & PROCESS

- A. Individuals wishing to run for a position as a Director are subject to nomination, which requires the submission of a signed Candidate Application Form and supporting materials by the application deadline.
- B. Each nominee must complete and sign a Candidate Application Form and submit it to the Nominations Committee along with a letter of intent and a résumé outlining the nominees' qualifications, successes, work, and volunteer history. Nominees may further submit:
 - A campaign platform describing what the nominee would like to do to further the objectives of Triathlon Canada – this material may be as detailed or specific as the nominee desires
 - A headshot photo
 - A biography of the nominee (maximum 300 words)
 - Testimonials from other organizations or other individuals
- C. Incumbent Directors are not required (but are encouraged) to submit a Candidate Application Form and must inform the Nominations Committee when they intend to stand for re-election prior to the application deadline. In the absence of an application form, incumbent Directors must provide a short biography.
- D. The Nominations Committee will conduct due diligence by reviewing the nominee's qualifications, the required skills and attributes, and potential conflict of interest or other significant matters which would preclude the nominee from successfully fulfilling the duties of a Director. The Nominations Committee may further engage in a personal interview of the applicant to determine eligibility.
- E. The Nominations Committee will short-list the nominees, ensuring eligibility and may conduct reference checks and interviews. The Nominations Committee may also communicate directly with the short-listed candidates to discuss the roles, responsibilities, and expectations of a Director.
- F. The Nominations Committee will make a final report to the Members before any meeting of the Members at which an election occurs that will identify their preferred slate of nominees.
- G. Nominee information will be made available to the Members prior to the election within the Notice of the Annual General Meeting.
- H. Nominees may also be invited to deliver a short speech at the Annual General Meeting in support of their platform and their candidacy. Speeches will be kept to a maximum of two minutes.

Applications may be submitted by email, mail, or courier to the following address by 5:00 PM (PST) on May 18, 2026.

APPENDIX II

BOARD OF DIRECTORS DIVERSITY POLICY

PURPOSE

The Triathlon Canada Board of Directors Diversity Policy (“the Policy”) sets out the approach that will be taken by the Board of Directors (“the Board”) and Members of Triathlon Canada in relation to achieving and maintaining diversity among individuals recruited, nominated, appointed, or elected to the Board.

SCOPE OF POLICY

The Policy applies to nominations, appointments, and elections for positions on the Board. It also applies to nominations and appointments made by the Board to Committees of the Board.

The Board is also committed to encouraging diversity among all employees of Triathlon Canada and expects that the principles of diversity and inclusion will inform all employment decisions and corporate decisions made by the Board and at Triathlon Canada.

POLICY STATEMENT

The Board is committed to creating a culture at Triathlon Canada that is inclusive and values and fosters respect for differences within our community.

Triathlon Canada recognizes the benefits of having a diverse, inclusive Board. Having diverse perspectives, backgrounds and experiences on the Board will contribute to more innovative, more creative, more responsive, and more sensitive decision-making. To this end, Triathlon Canada is committed to increasing and maintaining diversity on the Board.

When making decisions about recruiting, nominating, appointing and electing Directors, the Members and the Board shall ensure the full complement of the Board is as diverse as possible in terms of gender; gender identity or expression; sexual orientation; race; Indigenous or Aboriginal identity; nationality; place of origin; ethnicity; colour; ancestry; age; ability; skills; educational or professional background; socioeconomic status; and religion, spirituality or beliefs.

ACCOUNTABILITY AND REPORTING

Based on advice and recommendations from the Governance Committee, the Board will set objectives and benchmarks for increasing and maintaining diversity on the Board every two (2) years, in advance of the Annual General Meeting of Members. At any given time, based on the existing composition of the Board and the needs of the Corporation, the objectives and benchmarks may focus on one or more than one aspect of its diversity.

The Nominations Committee will report to the Board every two (2) years on:

- recruitment efforts made to attract candidates with diverse backgrounds;
- progress made towards achieving objectives and benchmarks agreed to by the Board; and
- the process used for Board nominations and the consideration given to increasing diversity on the Board.

POLICY REVIEW

The Policy, recruitment and nomination process will be reviewed, at a minimum every two (2) years.
